

Married.
On the 11th inst. by Rev. J. M. Maxwell, Mr. JOHN CLEVELAND to Miss PERMELLA A. HANCOCK.

"Well," soliloquized our DEVIL, with his mouth cramed almost to suffocation with the delicious bride's cake, with which we had been honored on the receipt of the above notice, (and for which we return our thanks.) "This is what might be called enjoying high-life, what do I care about your fine evening parties, balls &c., I have got the bride's sweet biscuit, which repays me for all the abuse the world can heap upon me," "What if they do say, that I go about like a roaring lion, seeking whom I may devour somebody," 'tis all false, the only thing that I seek to devour is large slices of "wedding cake," and to those who are kind enough to favor me with such presents, in return I wish them health, happiness, prosperity, and every bliss this world can afford." "Truly I receive greater credit for a ferocious disposition than I deserve."

Success attend the happy couple. X

Book Agents Wanted.

The subscriber publishes a large number of most valuable books, very popular, and of such a moral and religious influence, that while good men may safely engage in their circulation, they will confer a public benefit, and receive a fair compensation for their labor. To young men of enterprise and tact, this business offers an opportunity for profitable employment seldom to be met with. There is not a town in the Union where a right honest and well-disposed person can fail, selling from 50 to 200 volumes, according to the population.

JUST PUBLISHED.

"Pictorial Description of China and India," 600 pp., and "Thrilling Incidents of the Wars of the United States," 600 pp. Retail price $2.50 per volume. Our Publications are too numerous to be described in an advertisement.

Any person wishing to embark in the enterprise will risk little by sending to the Publisher $25, for which he will receive sample copies of the various works, (at whole sale prices,) carefully boxed, insured, and directed, affording a very liberal per centage to the Agent for his trouble. With these he will soon be able to ascertain the most saleable, and order accordingly.

We solicit orders from the Trade, Teachers, and School Committees for Books, to whom we furnish our own publications, and those of all the publishers in the country, on the most liberal terms.

Country Merchants can procure subscribers to, and sell "Sears' Pictorial Works," make a handsome profit, and sustain no loss.

Persons wishing to engage in the sale, will receive promptly, by mail, a Circular containing all particulars, with "Directions to persons desiring to act as Agents," together with the terms on which they will be furnished, by addressing the subscriber, post paid.

By the last news from the telegraph we are informed that the glorious struggle for Life and Liberty by the "Volunteers for Cuba," is triumphantly successful, and though it may be "Great cry and no Wool," yet it is an undeniable fact that it will soon get a glorious impetus and be "FORCED TO Burn" off the "Veil" of Clockologism and "Wool Regulating" from the eyes of Wheeler's cellar. All those who wish their Clocks and Watches regulated will volunteer for Cuba. Those who want Wool regulated, or Yarn spun, will call on the Clockologist, and Wool Regulator, and all who want their work done up right will call on me,

SANDS LENT & CO.
AMERICAN CLOTHES
HIPPOFERRAEAN ARENA.

WILL PERFORM
In Plymouth, Wednesday, Sept. 17th, 1851.

Prices of Admission 25 cents. No half price. Doors open at 12 o'clock, P. M. Performance commences at 2 P. M.

THIS magnificent establishment, whose former fame and reputation throughout the length and breadth of both continents have rendered it the GRAND ATTRACTION where ever it has been located; consists of the most superb and trained horses and ponies ever exhibited, (performed by artists whose praises are the theme of the whole press and public of Europe and America), and also of a trio of the most accomplished and docile ELEPHANTS that the world has yet seen.

The horses and ponies were selected from the largest and best collections in Europe expressly for this concern, by Mr. Sands himself, and although the encomiums which have been bestowed upon them may be considered by some as extravagant, there is no one who has seen them but is willing to acknowledge that their anticipations were more than realized.

The character of Mr. Sands & Co's establishment in the western country renders it unnecessary to enlarge upon its merits.

The company will enter town on the forenoon of the day of the exhibition in grand procession, preceded by the magnificent East India Car, drawn by the elephants, and containing Capt. Adams' BRASS BAND, a musical company embracing some of the first talent in America. Following this will be the entire company in cavalcade, and a train of the beautifully decorated vehicles, the rear being brought up by the exquisitely beautiful miniature chariot of the fairy Titania, drawn by 20 Lilliputian Ponies, the whole forming the most imposing and pleasing pageant ever witnessed in the United States.

The above company will perform at Rochester on Thursday, Sept. 18th.

Plymouth, Aug. 27, 1851.
